

Friday Flyer 15th Dec 2023

Dear parents & carers,

What a wonderful week it has been in school! The children performed fantastically in their Christmas Extravaganza, I am sure you are all incredibly proud of them. We are! I have included a link below for your feedback and ideas for next year's Christmas performance.

There is also a link for the next Parent Forum. We really do encourage you to get involved with this, as we can all work together to continue providing the best outcomes for your children. Please let Tracy know if you are attending.

The children have been creating Christmas crafts, and practicing for their performance this week, alongside their usual learning in class and have all managed to contain their excitement enough to see their lessons through successfully.

The Rainbow Theatre will be performing Snow White for the children on Monday morning, thanks to a very generous donation and the PTA's support. We really do appreciate everything you as our school community do for the children.

I do hope you all have a very enjoyable and restful weekend, in the build up to this wonderful festive season.

Kind regards,

Mrs French

We really do appreciate your input and ideas and we urge you to come forward and join in with our Parent Forum.

The next one will be held:

Please let Tracy know if you plan on attending.

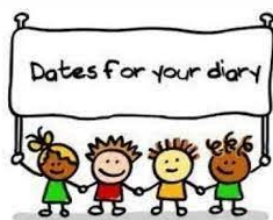

This week in Ladywell, the children used the iMotion app to create short stop-frame animation pieces based on Raymond Briggs's The Snowman. You can find the finished products on our class DB page under the heading 'The Snowman Videos'!
